

Back by wildly popular demand!

8step editing

Not since the invention of the bread slicer has a task been made SO easy, SO quickly! Jim Taylor's nationally recognized course proves invaluable to novice and experienced editors and writers alike. Jim uses a step-by-step process to identify and remedy the most common obstacles to readers' understanding.

Intrigued? Go to the MEA Web site's Upcoming events page to read about the last time Jim revealed his secrets to our eager members . . .

..... ✂
Beat the crowd: register early!

Name: _____

Date: Saturday, February 11, 2012

Time: Doors open for coffee and sign-in at 8:30; workshop starts at 9:00 sharp

Location: The Law Society building at 219 Kennedy St. (next to the Medical Arts building)

Cost: MEA members: $100; non-members: $145; students: $75

Parking: On the street or behind the building (but you have to walk to the front to be let in)

Register: Register before February 3 by mail (address below) or TelPay (see Events site)

Food: Do you prefer a vegetarian meal? Yes. Any dietary concerns? _____

..... Enclose this portion with your payment ✂